Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Carolyn Jorgensen began her career with Fischer, Rounds & Associates, Inc., in June 1989, where she served as a customer service representative for all aspects relating to the insurance industry; and,

Whereas, Carolyn, being a natural student of politics, has been accused of changing her boss from a once shy and timid person, to further nurturing his interest to run for public office; and,

Whereas, Carolyn's other boss wishes she had not been so successful in those efforts, preventing his own retirement by now; and,

Whereas, Carolyn and her husband, Rick, are the proud parents of two daughters, Cari and Kendra, and equally proud grandparents of Cari and husband, Ron's, boys: Lukus, Samual and Benjamin; and,

Whereas, Carolyn has earned the utmost respect of her employers and co-workers, as well as the numerous clients she has faithfully served for the past 17 years through her loyalty and dedication to duty; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding individual on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 12, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join her co-workers, family, and friends in congratulating her and wishing her a long, healthy, peaceful and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
